SUFFRAGE ADVOCATES LOSE FIGHT IN SENATE

RESOLUTION PROPOSING AMENDMENT TO CONSTITUTION DEFEATED

Thirty Five Senators Vote for Measure to 34 Against, Two Thirds Majority Being Necessary for Passage—Suffragist Leaders Reported Jubilant Over Good Showing Made.

Washington, March 19.—Woman suffrage advocates today lost their fight in the United States senate for a resolution proposing an amendment to the federal constitution giving women the ballot, the vote was 35 for the measure to 34 against it, a two-thirds affirmative vote being required for passage and when it was all over suffragist leaders jubilantly pointed to the majority of one as conclusive proof that their cause had scored a triumph in defeat and was immeasurably stronger than its opponents had ever been willing to concede.

Today's action following weeks of debate on the floor of the senate during which many leaders in the suffrage movement pleaded for postponement of the final vote, marked the climax of a spirited campaign launched here the day before the inauguration of President Wilson.

New Resolution Introduced.

Immediately after the vote Senator Shrafroth of Colorado sought to introduce a new resolution for a constitutional amendment requiring each state to vote on granting suffrage to women upon petition from five per cent of its voters. The senate went into executive session before the senator could get the floor however, and the resolution will be offered later. The resolution defeated today was the first introduced in the present congress. It was presented by Senator Chamberlain of Oregon and the woman suffrage committee later authorized Senator Ashurst to report it favorably. Though otherwise the vote virtually was non-partisan, the southern senators, all Democrats, lined up solidly against the amendment. They contended it would complicate the negro question in the states. Of the southerners only Senators Randsell of Louisiana, Shepard of Texas and Lea of Tennessee voted for the resolution.

Would Repeal Amendment.

Senator Vardaman led a movement among the friends of woman's suffrage in the south to repeal the fifteenth amendment to the constitution by which the states are prohibited from denying the right to negroes to vote. With the negro question removed, he said, he favored the granting of suffrage to women. His proposal was defeated 48 to 19 and a proposition by Senator Williams to give the ballot to white women only was defeated by 44 to 21.

The vote was preceded by a three hour kaleidoscopic debate on the various phases of suffrage.

Martine Opposes Principal.

Senator Martine of New Jersey was the only member who stated he was opposed to woman suffrage on principal. He declared the participation of women in politics had failed to purify the ballot and that it would be a sad and sorry day for both women and men when they were given the ballot universally. The speeches of suffrage senators he added "had excited in his mind the wonder if they found objection to the Savior for not choosing six of the apostles from among the women."

Senator Gallinger declared it would be a crime to repeal the fifteenth amendment, even if it were a blunder to have passed it.

Senator Newlands declared that making this a white man's country, by use of the woman suffrage law, could not be accomplished.

Mrs. Medill McCormick, chairman of the congressional committee of the National American Woman Suffrage association, issued a statement claiming the majority as a victory.

"For the first time in fifty years", she said, "the women of America demonstrated their impression upup the United States senate. It is a sign of the times and it pertends that all womanhood in this country will be emancipated within this generation."

Those Favoring Resolution.

Senators voting for the woman suffrage resolution were: Ashurst, Brady, Bristow, Burton, Chamberlain, Clapp, Clark (Wyo.), Gallinger, Gronna, Hollis, Hughes, Jones, Kenyon, LaFollette, Lane, Lea, Meyers, Nelson, Newlands, Norris, Owen, Perkins, Poindexter, Ransdell, Shafroth, Sherman, Smoot, Stephenson, Sterling, Sutherland, Sheperd, Thomas, Thompson, Townsend, Works—35.

Those Opposing Resolution.

Senators voting against the amendment were: Bankhead, Borah, Bradley, Brandege, Bryan, Catron, Dillingham, DuPont, Gore, James, Johnson, Lee (Maryland), Lodge, McCumber, McLean, Martin, Martine, Oliver, Overman, Page, Pittman, Pomrene, Reed, Shields, Smith (Ga.), Smith (Maryland), Sith, (S. C.), Swanson, Thornton, Tillman, Vardaman, Weeks, West, Williams—34.

Lawson, star reporter for the Chicago Tribune, and one of the best known newspapermen in the middle-west, met a tragic death this afternoon when he fell down an elevator shaft in the Chicago Press club building. His body was discovered at the bottom of the shaft sometime after the accident is supposed to have happened.

It is believed Mr. Lawson opened the door of the elevator shaft, which is used for freight mistaking it for the door of the lavatory adjoining, and stepped in before realizing his mistake.

When news of the tragedy was flashed to the different newspaper offices by the City News Bureau, there ensued an almost complete cessation of activities among editors and reporters by whom Mr. Lawson generally was considered the "best reporter in Chicago."

For years his stories have been held up as models of newspaper writing.

STUBBORN OPPOSITION TO WILSONS REPEAL PLEA

DEMOCRATS WHO OPPOSE POLICY REVERSAL BECOME MORE ACTIVE

President Denies Statement That Tolls Repeal Is Price to Be Paid for Non-Interference by Foreign Powers in Mexico—Other News of Washington.

Washington, March 19.—More stubborn than anything that has arisen to stir the tranquility of the Democratic majority is the opposition to President Wilson's plea for repeal of the toll exemption provision for American ships in the Panama canal act.

With the time almost at hand when the question is to be decided the opposition of the Democrats who believe it would be an economic mistake to reverse the policy of the government on the tolls question becomes more active.

While members in both houses on the Democrat side will support his measure, few have any idea that the majority in favor of the repeal will be large.

In the senate action by the committee on inter-oceanic canals in a repeal bill submitted by Senator Owen may be taken tomorrow or Saturday. Senator O'Gorman, chairman of the committee, will consider the matter of taking up the resolution tomorrow.

President Wilson today conferred with Senator Jones of Washington, informing the senator that there was absolutely no basis for conclusions he had referred to in a senate speech Wednesday to the effect that the tolls repeal was the price to be paid as a result of negotiations with Great Britain for non-interference by foreign powers in Mexico and for England's defense of the Monroe doctrine.

Senate Tredding on Thin Ice.

The president told the senate it was tredding on thin ice. Discussing the matter with other callers the president said his address to the senate on the repeal of the toll clause was written before the visit to Washington of the British minister to Mexico, Sir Lionel Garden, to whom Senator Jones had referred to in his speech and the canal controversy was not mentioned during the minister's conference at the white house.

Later in the day Senator Jones made a statement to the senate asserting he had not wished to misrepresent anybody, that he had referred to the conclusions as he had read them in a newspaper and that it was due the president that he express to the senate his flat denial of the matter.

Senator Jones' resolution calling upon the president for information as to the position of foreign governments on the tolls question will come up again tomorrow when Senator Bristow will make an effort to have it referred to the canals instead of the foreign relations committee. Senator Poindexter plans to talk on his resolution which would ask the president for an explanation of some of the features of his message to congress on the tolls issue.

Interested in Railroads.

President Wilson today manifested his deep interest in the final condition of the railroads of the country expressing a desire to help in every legitimate way to bring them relief. The president has been asked by callers if he had heard any particular complaints from the railroads about their financial condition and remarked that he had heard what everybody was discussing—the uncertainty of their position.

Will Meet Senator Hughes.

Arrangements were made by President Wilson today to confer in the near future with Senator Hughes and members of the house interested in obtaining provisions in the proposed new anti-trust legislation which would exempt the operation of labor unions and co-operative farmers' organizations from prosecution under the Sherman law or other statutes.

Will Investigate Changes.

Allegations that a fund of $50,000 had been raised in the interest of prison contractors to defeat the Hughes bill to regulate and restrict the interstate transportation of convict made goods, will be investigated tomorrow by the senate lobby committee.

CHESTER PRISONER RELEASED ON PROMISE TO MARRY GIRL

Governor Dunne Commutes Thirty Year Sentence of Charles A. Kimsey.

Springfield, Ills., March 19.—The sentence of Charles A. Kimsey, serving a term of 30 years for a statutory offense was commuted today by Governor Dunne on condition that he marry Cora Calvert, against whom he was alleged to have offended, and care for her and her child. The marriage took place at Chester today.

Relative to the pardon granted Charles Kimsey and the marriage at Chester today, Governor Dunne tonight said in part:

"A strict adherance to the letter of the law which would keep this man in prison for twenty years longer, instead of vindicating society and the criminal code would, in my opinion, subject society and its laws to well merited censure.

"To err is human; to forgive d vine. The pardoning power was invested in the governor to cover just such cases, and in my judgment, in commuting this man's sentence I follow the dictates of humanity, the teachings of Christianity and exercise wisely and justly the discretion invested in me by the laws of the land."

FIFTY LOSE LIVES WHEN TORPEDO BOAT SINKS STEAMER

No Americans Are Reported to Have Been Aboard Ill-fated Italian Vessel.

Venice, March 19—A torpedo boat today cut down a small passenger steamer which plies between Venice and Lido, a chain of sandy islands, separating the lagoon of Venice from the Adriatic and fifty persons were drowned. The sharp nose of the torpedo boat went through the stern of the steamer, which sank almost immediately. Although many Americans are visiting Venice at the present time, it is not believed that any were aboard the steamer. The victimes included many women and several children.

Fifteen persons who were on deck at the time were saved by the crew of the torpedo boat. The others were caught in the cabin and were carried down with the wreck. The Italian sailors dived many times in an effort to rescue those who sank with the steamer, but without avail. Intense excitement prevails here, not only because of the extent of the disaster, but because the names of the victims are not yet known.

Captain Kocher was granted a divorce from his first wife Dec. 1st, 1913.

Three store, a moving picture theater and numerous business offices occupy the building.

U. S. GOVERNMENT WILL WELCOME PROPOSALS

READY TO RESUME PEACE PARLEYS WITH EITHER MEXICAN FORCE

Administration Will Be Glad to Consider Any Proposal Tending to Draw the Various Factions Together Into a Plan for Restoration of Peace in Mexico.

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The United States government will welcome a re-opening of negotiations with the Huerta government or the constitutionalists and will be glad to consider any proposal that will tend to draw the various factions together into a plan for the restoration of peace in Mexico.

This is the attitude of President Wilson as it was revealed today after reports reached here saying Senor Portilio y Rojas minister for foreign affairs in the Huerta cabinet had gone to meet John Lind, Mr. Wilson's personal representative, to seek a resumption of the peace parleys.

Senor Rojas has been mentioned as the man who would succeed Huerta if he retired and the object of the visit to Mr. Lind it has been reported was to acquaint the president's envoy with his personality.

Incidentally the president, in talking with callers today while remarking that he had had no official report of any new parleys, spoke in complimentary terms of the Mexican minister of foreign affairs as a man of high character.

What the president emphasizes in his informal discussions on the Mexican situation is that he, as president of the United States, has never sought to approve or disapprove of individuals who may aspire to the presidency of Mexico and that he has no list of men whom he holds under the so-called ban, because of alleged complicity in the assassination of Madero. His refusal to recognize Huerta, it may be stated on the highest authority was not based on any personal antagonism to Huerta but on the ground that the constitutionalists would never be reconciled to the man who had overthrown Madero and Suarez and that government's set up by arbitrary force and not reflecting the popular will should not be dealt with by the United States.

Likewise in the consideration of individuals who might seek recognition by the United States the principle President Wilson has been working is that recognition extended to any one set up in the presidency without some popular expression or without the endorsement of all factions could not lead to peace.

In considering peace proposals from the Huerta government the United States it is known now, will do all that it can to forward a peaceful settlement but the conviction is as strong with the president today as it was when he sent his instructions to John Lind last summer that peace in Mexico in the last analysis is dependent upon terms that will be acceptable alike to the constitutionalists and the Huerta administration. One of the suggestions made to President Wilson lately contemplates the sending a commission of Americans of prominence to investigate conditions in Mexico. Unofficial reports have had it that both Carranza and Huerta would receive such a commission.

Monterey Next Battle Scene.

Brownsville, Texas, March 19.—Monterey, the most important city in northeast Mexico, will be attacked within two weeks and before an attempt is made to take Terreon, according to T. J. Foster, an American gunner who has been fighting with the constitutionalists for nearly a year. Foster arrived at Matamoras from the front today.

Monterey, capital of the state of Neuvo Leon, is an important railroad center and gateway to southern Mexico. It is about seventy miles east of Torreon, with which it is connected by two railroad lines. On the south is the important city of Saltillo, twenty miles from Monterey and in the hills between these cities, according to Foster, the constitutionalists plan to force the decisive battle, Villa and his forces approaching from the west and Carranza and his forces from the east.

"The rebels do not want Torreon," said Foster. "The constitutionalists three times have given up for more important places. Villa will leave sufficient force at Torreon to hold Valesquez's men and virtually the entire rebel forces will be concentrated at Monterey."

Within the last month there has been a steady concentration of eastern forces of the constitutionalists about Monterey. Numerous minor engagements have been fought, according to reports received at the Matamoras rebel headquarters which said the federals were being forced back into the city. At last reports the constitutionalists were within twenty miles of Monterey.

Heavy shipments of ammunition continue to go west from Matamoras.

Another party will make an effort to break up the ice and get her to a safe anchorage.

THIRD ATTEMPT TO RAZE SKELETON RUINS OF M.A.C. FAILS

Total of Seven Bodies is Removed From Ruins of St. Louis Seed House Thursday.

St. Louis, Mo., March 19.—The third attempt to raze the skeleton ruins of the Missouri Athletic Club—this time by the use of dynamite—failed tonight. The first blast was set off at mid-night and though the detonation could be heard a mile off, it failed even to shake the seven story south wall of the ruins.

Today a total of seven bodies had been taken from the ruins of the St. Louis Seed company whose building was crushed by the collapse of part of the Athletic club ruins a few days ago.

Because two workmen who were in the building at the time of the collapse and who have been missing ever since, failed to report for their pay tonight the belief that they still lie buried in the ruins has regained credence.

PREDICTS GOVERNMENTAL PERMISSION FOR MONOPOLIES

Senator Cummins Forecasts Special Permission for Certain Monopolies

Boston, March 19.—Governmental permission for certain monopolies and control of competition were forecasted by Senator Albert B. Cummins of Iowa in an address before the city club tonight. Defining one of the plans proposed by modern thought for the improvement of business conditions as an arrangement whereby the "government shall stop the big commercial fight in certain fields and permit monopoly and fix prices, or see to it that the fight is fair and civilized," Senator Cummins said:

"This proposition is now being worked out by the government, but still is confusing."

As a means of insuring competition, Senator Cummins said he would favor taking away some of the capital from the United States Steel corporation and dividing it among other big steel corporations, equalizing the chances of competition.

MEMBER OF FRENCH CABINET WITHDRAWS

RESIGNATION COMES AS DIRECT RESULT OF RECENT SHOOTING

Ernest Monis Resigns From Ministry of Marine, Withdrawal from Cabinet Will Not Be Temporary—Mme. Caillaux Shows Effect of Imprisonment.

Paris, March 19.—French public opinion continues to be deeply occupied with the Calmette tragedy and the resulting political agitation, although interest was less outwardly manifested today. The general interest of the pleasure-loving Parisians was centered in the mi-careme parade of which confetti battles in the boulevards were a feature.

A few excited students in Paris and Versailles attempted demonstrations against M. Caillaux but the police had no difficulty in dispersing them.

The principal development of the day was the resignation of Ernest Monis from the ministry of marine and it is understood his withdrawal from the cabinet will be permanent, not temporary as was at first expected, whatever may be the finding of the investigating committee.

Various names were mentioned in the lobbies of the chamber for post of minister of marine but Premier Doumerge has decided to take no action for the present.

Calmette Funeral Today.

While some kind of a demonstration by the anti-Republicans is certainly to be attempted at the funeral of M. Calmette tomorrow, the police authorities do not anticipate serious trouble.

Nevertheless M. Henion, the perfect of Paris has made extensive preparations to preserve order. Saint Lazare prison where M. Caillaux occupies a cell was against the object of interest today by many hundreds of persons who seemed deeply interested in those who passed within its doors.

M. Caillaux, it is said, is beginning to show the effects of her imprisonment. Her young daughter by an earlier marriage, Juliette Calertie, is allowed to visit her daily. Her husband and her attorney, M. Labori called on her this afternoon and found her in a very much depressed and nervous state. She discussed her case with M. Labori in preparation for her first appearance before the examining magistrate next week.

M. Labori informed Mme. Caillaux, it is said, that she had no alternative but to throw herself on the mercy of the court and that in her defense he could not make any reflections on M. Calmette. In fact he explained, it was only on this condition that he agreed to undertake her defense and he had made this plain to both the family of his late friend, M. Calmette and M. Caillaux. The former minister of finance, said that M. Labori's attitude perfectly and approved of it adding:

"I have asked you only to defend my wife; I do not want you to attack M. Calmette."

The general committee under the presidency of M. Ribet, to which the Chambers bill to confer full judicial powers on the Rochette investigating committee was referred, took the matter under consideration today.

Senator Richard considered that full judicial powers were not warranted and presented an amendment giving the committee power to punish witnesses, who either refused to appear or take the oath and providing for a punishment of from two to five years imprisonment and a fine for those bearing false witness or subording witnesses before the committee.

It is understood that the government will accept the amendment and that the bill will pass the senate tomorrow.

AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

The Irish Players who are to appear at the Grand tonight will bring with them a carload of scenery, which they brought with them this year from the Abbey theatre. They were among the first to accept the radical ideas of Gordon Craig, who has become famous for his wonderful scenery at the Sea Gull theatre, Moscow.

The most novel feature of the setting of the plays which will be given here will be a deep frame just inside the proscenium area which makes a perfect setting for the picture presented by the players and drop cloth at the back. Many of these drops were designed by Gordon Craig for this company and are painted in the bold, suggestive, decorative style that is now in high favor on the Continent. The lighting effects used in all these plays is also unique, various colored lights being used in conjunction with the decorative scenery to gain an effect of unusual beauty.

Every Irishman the world over should think of pride of the Irish Players and the Abbey Theatre which they have built in Dublin. This little band of inspired artists has, in the words of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, "Put Ireland in the literary map of the twentieth century." Through their efforts a new school of Irish drama has been established and one immortal J. M. Synge, has been discovered. Wherever they have gone they have won fame and honor and their work is distinctly one of the great patriotic movements of the time.

During the busy seasons Engineer Clark ran through this city and in dull times had charge of an engine which helped trains from Bluffs to Baylis. An inquest will be held at Bluffs today.

"Representative Edward Keating of Colorado and John P. White, president of the miners' union; today sixteen miners who yesterday were released by the military at Trinidad, Colo., returned to their homes at Forbes and began re-erecting their homes which were last week torn down by the military. General Chase is camped on the ground to prevent re-building. The miners are on ground which we have leased. There is no charge of any kind against the miners who seek to rebuild their destroyed homes."

Governor Ammons said late today that he had received no report from General Chase regarding the attempt to re-build the tents and he declined to make any comment on the incident until a report had been received.

SECOND RATE MOTHER BETTER THAN THE BEST INSTITUTION

ALBANY, N. Y., March 19.—That a second rate mother is a better mother than the very best institution, is one of the arguments contained in the preliminary finding of the State Commission of Relief for Widowed Mothers which were filed with the legislature today in support of the Griffin-McCue bill designed to provide for state "allowances" for needy widows with children. The commission asserts that widowed mothers have the right to claim from the state money with which to rear their children to become good citizens. The "allowance" requested in the measure is described as a "salary granted to the mother by the state in return for which she undertakes to perform a certain present task of child rearing."

TELLS ABOUT GREAT FIRE AT WELLESLEY

Miss Margaret Ayers Returns From East for Easter Vacation—Fire Drill Training Saved Many Lives.

Miss Margaret Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ayers, returned to Jacksonville Thursday morning from Wellesley college. Miss Ayers is home for the Easter vacation and came a week or ten days earlier than originally planned on acocunt of the great fire which recently destroyed administration building at the college and resulted in a loss of a million dollars.

There are about 1500 students at Wellesley and within 24 hours after the fire which occurred Tuesday morning at 4:20 o'clock, all of them were enroute to their homes. Miss Ayers came west to Chicago on a train which carried two special coaches of Wellesley young women, and still another coach was necessary into Buffalo. There can be no doubt but that the excellence of the discipline which prevails at the college saved a serious loss of life.

In telling of the fire yesterday to her Jacksonville friends Miss Ayers said: "In administration building which includes offices, library and a dormitory there were 240 students 50 teachers and 50 maids, and all of them left the building without confusion. The fire was discovered just at 4:20 o'clock by one of the girls who awakened to find her room half filled with smoke and a flame eating its way though one corner of the ceiling. She displayed remarkable coolness and judgment and instead of screaming fire, she hurriedly put on slippers and throwing a heavy coat over her shoulders ran down the hall to the room of the governess and gave the alarm.

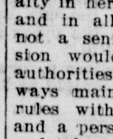

Believed Alarm Was for Fire Drill.

"Within a minute afterward a great Chinese gong which is used as a fire alarm sounded. There are very strict rules at Wellesley concerning fire drills and these drills are apt to occur any time of a day or night. The gong has a hideous sound and one could not possibly sleep through it. The girls and other occupants of the building were all awake soon after the gong was heard. They all believed it was the fire drill, but they followed rules explicitly and in an almost incredibly short space of time they were marching down the hallways and to places outside the building. They were all in night clothes, but wore slippers and their street coats. The rules are such that no girl stopped to gather together any other clothing.

"When the outside was reached and the teachers, girls and maids found that they were not going through simply a fire drill they hastened to take refuge in other dormitories and buildings. There possibly would have been time to have returned to the rooms to secure suit cases and some clothing, but the authorities absolutely forbade anyone taking the risk. One girl, however, was so anxious to save some of her clothing and other possessions in her room that she went back and secured a suit case full. The penalty in her case will be a heavy fine and in all probability if she were not a senior, suspension or expulsion would probably follow. The authorities of the college have always maintained the most rigid rules with reference to fire drills and a person who does not respond and take part in a drill is subjected to a heavy fine. This policy will be adhered to, it is said, in the instance of the actual fire as a matter of consistent discipline.

Borrowed Clothes From Other Students.

The girls as they arrived at the other dormitory were speedily taken in and their fellow students provided them with clothing. Although so much finery was destroyed in the fire the wardrobes of the remaining students proved to be ample for the whole company, yet it must be confessed that some of the costumes were not of the most becoming type. Some of the girls who had lost clothing in the fire went to Boston a few hours afterward and purchased new outfits while others returned homeward still clad in borrowed finery. Miss Pendleton, who is at the head of Wellesley had affairs so well in hand that before newspaper dispatches of any extent had been sent out telegrams were ready to be sent to the parents or guardian of each of the 1500 students. In this way she was able to forstall the alarm which would undoubtedly have been felt in hundreds of homes throughout the country if they had received news of the great fire without knowing the fact that there had been no loss of life. The fire occurred at such time that the news was too late for the morning papers and too early for the afternoon papers. However the Boston papers got out extras and the only sensational account at all was in an early edition which gave the rumor that three girls had been suffocated by smoke. However, this was soon followed by other extra editions which gave the real facts in the case and showed pictures of the burning building."

VALUE OF RHEUMA FROM THE COURT

Judge Barhorst Was Relieved of Rheumatism After Doctors Failed.

If you have tried many other remedies and doctors' treatments for rheumatism and found they failed, do not be skeptical about trying RHEUMA. Read the testimony of Judge John Barhorst of Fort Lorraine, O.:

"After treatment by three doctors without result, I have been cured of a very bad case of Rheumatism by using two bottles of RHEUMA. It is now two years since I used the remedy and I am still as well as ever. Previously, I was a cripple, walking with crutches."

Such testimony should be convincing. 50 cents a bottle at all druggists.—Adv.

AT THE GRAND TONIGHT.

The Irish Players who are to appear at the Grand tonight will bring with them a carload of scenery, which they brought with them this year from the Abbey theatre. They were among the first to accept the radical ideas of Gordon Craig, who has become famous for his wonderful scenery at the Sea Gull theatre, Moscow.

The most novel feature of the setting of the plays which will be given here will be a deep frame just inside the proscenium arch which makes a perfect setting for the picture presented by the players and drop cloth at the back. Many of these drops were designed by Gordon Craig for this company and are painted in the bold, suggestive, decorative style that is now in high favor on the Continent. The lighting effects used in all these plays is also unique, various colored lights being used in conjunction with the decorative scenery to gain an effect of unusual beauty.

Every Irishman the world over should think of pride of the Irish Players and the Abbey Theatre which they have built in Dublin. This little band of inspired artists has, in the words of the Chicago Inter-Ocean, "Put Ireland in the literary map of the twentieth century." Through their efforts a new school of Irish drama has been established and one immortal J. M. Synge, has been discovered. Wherever they have gone they have won fame and honor and their work is distinctly one of the great patriotic movements of the time.

WABASH ENGINEER IS KILLED AT BLUFFS

FRANK CLARK'S HEAD IS CRUSHED BY LOCOMOTIVE.

Switching Train Pushes Cars Against Engine While Man is Working on Air Brakes.

Frank Clark, an engineer in the employ of the Wabash railroad, was instantly killed at Bluffs Thursday night about 10 o'clock, when a train pushed the wheels of his engine over his head, crushing it to an unrecognizable mass.

Engineer Clark had stopped his engine and walked around it to look after his air brakes when a train which was switching in the yards pushed a number of cars into the rear of Clark's locomotive, pushing the locomotive onto him before he could get out of danger.

During the busy seasons Engineer Clark ran through this city and in dull times had charge of an engine which helped trains from Bluffs to Baylis. An inquest will be held at Bluffs today.

SECOND RATE MOTHER BETTER THAN THE BEST INSTITUTION

ALBANY, N. Y., March 19.—That a second rate mother is a better mother than the very best institution, is one of the arguments contained in the preliminary finding of the State Commission of Relief for Widowed Mothers which were filed with the legislature today in support of the Griffin-McCue bill designed to provide for state "allowances" for needy widows with children. The commission asserts that widowed mothers have the right to claim from the state money with which to rear their children to become good citizens. The "allowance" requested in the measure is described as a "salary granted to the mother by the state in return for which she undertakes to perform a certain present task of child rearing."

TELLS ABOUT GREAT FIRE AT WELLESLEY

Miss Margaret Ayers Returns From East for Easter Vacation—Fire Drill Training Saved Many Lives.

Miss Margaret Ayers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ayers, returned to Jacksonville Thursday morning from Wellesley college. Miss Ayers is home for the Easter vacation and came a week or ten days earlier than originally planned on acocunt of the great fire which recently destroyed administration building at the college and resulted in a loss of a million dollars.

There are about 1500 students at Wellesley and within 24 hours after the fire which occurred Tuesday morning at 4:20 o'clock, all of them were enroute to their homes. Miss Ayers came west to Chicago on a train which carried two special coaches of Wellesley young women, and still another coach was necessary into Buffalo. There can be no doubt but that the excellence of the discipline which prevails at the college saved a serious loss of life.

In telling of the fire yesterday to her Jacksonville friends Miss Ayers said: "In administration building which includes offices, library and a dormitory there were 240 students, 50 teachers and 50 maids, and all of them left the building without confusion. The fire was discovered just at 4:20 o'clock by one of the girls who awakened to find her room half filled with smoke and a flame eating its way though one corner of the ceiling. She displayed remarkable coolness and judgment and instead of screaming fire, she hurriedly put on slippers and throwing a heavy coat over her shoulders ran down the hall to the room of the governess and gave the alarm.

Believed Alarm Was for Fire Drill.

"Within a minute afterward a great Chinese gong which is used as a fire alarm sounded. There are very strict rules at Wellesley concerning fire drills and these drills are apt to occur any time of a day or night. The gong has a hideous sound and one could not possibly sleep through it. The girls and other occupants of the building were all awake soon after the gong was heard. They all believed it was the fire drill, but they followed rules explicitly and in an almost incredibly short space of time they were marching down the hallways and to places outside the building. They were all in night clothes, but wore slippers and their street coats. The rules are such that no girl stopped to gather together any other clothing.

"When the outside was reached and the teachers, girls and maids found that they were not going through simply a fire drill they hastened to take refuge in other dormitories and buildings. There possibly would have been time to have returned to the rooms to secure suit cases and some clothing, but the authorities absolutely forbade anyone taking the risk. One girl, however, was so anxious to save some of her clothing and other possessions in her room that she went back and secured a suit case full. The penalty in her case will be a heavy fine and in all probability if she were not a senior, suspension or expulsion would probably follow. The authorities of the college have always maintained the most rigid rules with reference to fire drills and a person who does not respond and take part in a drill is subjected to a heavy fine. This policy will be adhered to, it is said, in the instance of the actual fire as a matter of consistent discipline.

Borrowed Clothes From Other Students.

The girls as they arrived at the other dormitory were speedily taken in and their fellow students provided them with clothing. Although so much finery was destroyed in the fire the wardrobes of the remaining students proved to be ample for the whole company, yet it must be confessed that some of the costumes were not of the most becoming type. Some of the girls who had lost clothing in the fire went to Boston a few hours afterward and purchased new outfits while others returned homeward still clad in borrowed finery. Miss Pendleton, who is at the head of Wellesley had affairs so well in hand that before newspaper dispatches of any extent had been sent out telegrams were ready to be sent to the parents or guardian of each of the 1500 students. In this way she was able to forstall the alarm which would undoubtedly have been felt in hundreds of homes throughout the country if they had received news of the great fire without knowing the fact that there had been no loss of life. The fire occurred at such time that the news was too late for the morning papers and too early for the afternoon papers. However the Boston papers got out extras and the only sensational account at all was in an early edition which gave the rumor that three girls had been suffocated by smoke. However, this was soon followed by other extra editions which gave the real facts in the case and showed pictures of the burning building."

Rev. W. L. Dorgan, former pastor of the First Baptist church, who recently accepted a position as pastor of the First Baptist church of Waterloo, Iowa, began his work there last Sunday. The Waterloo Evening Courier in speaking of his coming says:

"Dr. W. L. Dorgan, the pastor of the First Baptist church, commenced his work in this city yesterday under most auspicious circumstances. The arrival of the new pastor, together with ideal weather, brought many people to the church and the auditorium was filled at both the morning and evening services. The interior of the church had been cleaned throughout in preparation for the coming of Mr. Dorgan and fresh paint and varnish has added much to the appearance of the building.

"At the morning service Dr. Dorgan prefaced his sermon with a few words relative to his new relations with the church and suggested that the church adopt as its motto during the pastorate the text found in Zachariah 4:6, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my spirit, saith the Lord of hosts."

"The pastor's morning sermon on 'The Standard of Christian Service" was an eloquent appeal for individual consecration to the Lord's work: an effort on the part of each member of the church to fill his place in the world, as arranged by divine plan, for each to perform one's duties to the glory of God and to enter upon Christian service with earnestness and a definite purpose.

"Dr. Dorgan is a man of power in the pulpit. His sermons both interest and inspire and his manner of delivery appeals to all. He has already made many friends here and he is beginning his pastoral duties with every promise of success. The First Baptist church has been without a pastor since the early part of October, when Rev. E. A. Valiant, resigned after a five year's pastorate, to accept a call at Bozeman, Mont.

"Dr. Dorgan's family will join him later. At present the wife and three children are visiting in Missouri, awaiting the time when Dr. Dorgan is able to find a suitable house here."

PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR MR. AND MRS. ROCKWOOD

Occasion Was the Sixth-sixth Birthday of Mr. Rockwood.

Recently Mr. B. F. Rockwood, father of G. C. Rockwood and H. G. Rockwood of this city, celebrated his sixty-sixth birthday at his home in Bluffs. The Bluffs Times in speaking of the event says:

"A very pleasant surprise was given at the Rockwood home last Sunday, March 15, for Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Rockwood. It was the sixty-sixth birthday anniversary of Mr. Rockwood but was decided by daughters and other relatives to keep it a secret from Mrs. Rockwood.

It was a considerable worry about getting them away but Cleveland and wife of Jacksonville were on hand to settle the difficulty. Cleveland wanted to go to town and of course father was induced to go. Helen planned to get her mother to Sunday school. After many excuses she decided to go.

The relatives gathered at the home at ten-thirty. At eleven o'clock Mrs. Rockwood came home and was ushered into the room where all were standing. Mr. Rockwood came home in a few moments and received the same surprise.

They wondered what could be prepared for dinner but upon entering the dining room the tables were filled with an abundance of good things to eat, and in the center of the table was a cake with 1848 and 1914 placed upon it which indicated the age of Mr. Rockwood.

There were about thirty-five present consisting of all the sons and daughters and their families. Those from a distance were G. C. Rockwood and wife, H. G. Rockwood and wife and children of Jacksonville.

DR. LUCCOCK SPEAKS BEFORE LARGE AUDIENCE.

Brings Out God's Great Interest in Having Men Choose Life in Sermon at Westminster Church.

Dr. Luccock of Chicago addressed a large gathering at Westminster church Thursday evening, delivering a strong sermon in which he brought out that God's great interest and great concern is in having men choose life.

He took for his text Deuteronomy 30-19, "I call heaven and earth to record this day against you, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life that both thou and thy seed my live" The sermon was an effort to show that that is what God is doing for us, setting before us life and death and bringing us to choose life. "Life is always attractive and appealing," said Dr. Luccock, "and is always cheerless and repelling. The course of our earthly walk is down a corridor in a picture gallery. On one side are pictures of life and on the other pictures of death. We are always between these two groups of pictures.

"Very striking in the Bible and very expressive in common experience we are all the while brought face to face with attractive pictures of life and contrasted pictures of death, from which we instinctively shrink. In these ways God is setting before people life on the one hand over against death on the other and urging the choice of life."

Dr. Luccock will deliver a sermon at Westminster again tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

ALEXANDER GUN CLUB HOLDS REGULAR SHOOT.

Snow and Wind Make Large Scores Impossible—John Snyder's Side Wins Team Shoot.

John Snyder's side won the team shoot at the regular tournament of the Alexander Gun club, held Thursday. Two teams of five men each, were chosen by Mr. Snyder and the other by Porter Corrington. Each man shot at 25 birds and out of the 125 Mr. Snyder's team broke 88 and Mr. Corrington's team 75.

Before the regular shoot Benjamin Davenport and Charles Cox were matched to shoot for a purse of $5. Cox was given a 15 bird handicap and when the scores were totaled it was found that the men broke forty birds each, giving Cox the match.

The scores in the regular fifty bird event held by the club follow: E. J. Kumle 25, M. E. Greenleaf 38, Henry Strawn 36, J. W. Robinson 39, Porter Corrington 42, J. B. Corrington 25, Benjamin Davenport 40, William Kumle 24, Fred Grandjean 30, John Snyder 35, Charles Cox 29, Walter Hines 28, George Colwell 27, Isaiah Strawn 39, Bert Davenport 32, Joseph Crompton 25 and Harry Beerup 25. The snow and wind made high scores impossible.

MACOUPIN COUNTY PAPERS FAVOR JUDGE BALDWIN.

Only One in the County Is Unfavorable to His Candidacy—Point to Reasons For Support.

With but a single exception the papers of Macoupin county are endorsing the candidacy of Judge F. E. Baldwin as the successor of Judge O. P. Thompson. The Gillispie News in this week's issue endorses Morgan county's candidate in the following strong editorial:

"Since our last issue in which we state we would at this time advise our readers how we think they should vote in the judicial primary on March 24th, we have found that the reason the people have had for not selecting a judge from Greene county for many years is because the court business of that county is very small and does not require the services of a resident judge. While the circuit court business in Morgan county is large and does require the services of a resident judge. Not only that, but we have also learned that while Morgan county has had a resident judge it has been with the consent and co-operation of Greene county voters and particularly of Norman L. Jones and his law partner, Henry T. Rainey, and further, that Greene county in return for this support of the Morgan county man for circuit judge, has been given, by and with the support of Morgan county a congressman in the person of Hon. Henry T. Rainey, Mr. Jones' partner. To select Mr. Jones for circuit judge at this time, would mean to leave Morgan county without a resident judge, where the business of litigants requires one should be, and at the same time put the firm of Rainey & Jones in the two best offices within the gift of the judicial and congressioal dnistricts.

The people of Macoupin county have a very substantial reason for being for Baldwin in the race. He lived in this county for several years and was, during that time, reporter in our circuit court, and at all times performed his responsibile duties with marked skill and uniform courtesy to the public. He read law in the office of Bell & Burton and there acquired a splendid legal education which, together with his experience as a court reporter, equipped him for admission to the bar in an unusually high dgeree. He has had four years experience as judge of the county court of Morgan county while his opponent has had no judicial experience.

INTERPRETING SPRINGFIELD REGISTRATION

The Springfield papers are having very little to say as to the possible significance of the recent registration there of about 11,000 women, as related to the question of local option. The Springfield Journal however editorially does go on to say that the vote indicates that woman suffrage has come to stay and that there is nothing to the claim that women do not want the ballot.

In part the Journal said: "There are people who are opposed to woman suffrage; but it is pretty evident their opposition is useless. One may suppose that Noah would have prevented the deluge if he could; but when the rain began to fall and the ark bgan to float he saw that the deluge was on and he accepted the situation. Indifference of women themselves can be no longer claimed.

"Interpreters of the significance of the registry reach different conclusions; but it is admitted that the advocates of local option, who have all along pinned their faith largely to the woman's vote in carrying their point, find encouragement in the very liberal registry of woman voters. A warm campaign is therefore assured, as the people will see before very long.

"As to the effect of the woman's vote in general, there is no good reason for apprehension. Everybody can afford to trust that women's interest in public affairs will be such that they will try to use their best judgment in voting, just as men profess that they have tried. They cannot make a worse mess of voting than men have often made. Joining the two influences for the same end—better government for everybody—better ends easily may be achieved. Nobody need fear the country is going to the dogs. The women will not let it; they want to stay here and enjoy themselves. The State Journal believes they will be a most useful and helpful influence. They have a great deal of practical knowledge about cleaning house."

WHOLE THING IN NUTSHELL.

Life: The people, grumbling slightly at the time taken from their affairs, elect representatives. The representatives organize and elect leaders. The leaders make speeches. The newspapers report what the speeches contain. The people read the papers, avoiding the speeches and confining themselves to baseball news. The representatives, perceiving this, do as they please. The people then elect new representatives.

HIGHEST COST OF LIVING PASSED

According to this month's bulletin of the department of labor the price of necessary foods was higher on November 15, 1913, than at any other time during the 24 years preceding, when they reached the maximum of 72.8 above the average for 1890-1899. Last December's prices were below the average for the year in the case of seven articles—sirloin steak, pork chops, bacon, ham, hens, flour and sugar.

NEW YORK'S LOW BIRTH RATE.

New York's birth rate for the year 1913 was the lowest since 1903. The number of births as set forth in a report issued by the health department was 135,134, equivalent to a birth rate of 25.12, against 135,666 and a rate of 26.22 in 1912, or a decrease in the absolute figures of 532 births and in the rate of 1.07.

ON VARIED THEMES.

In two precincts in Joliet women will vote at separate polling places at an election soon to be held. The city council decided to make this arrangement on account of the large number of women expected to vote in these precincts. Here in Jacksonville City Engineer Henderson is working on a plan to provide the number of precincts required by law but all the details have not yet been outlined. It is certain that it will be necessary to have double the number of precincts now in existence and possibly more will be required. The redistricting however cannot be completed before the board of education and general election on April 21st. It is the belief of officials that there will be no serious inconvenience in taking care of the vote at the present polling places, for no such outpouring of women is expecetd as there was on the local option question.

James J. Hill recently told an audience in Minnesota that there is too much farming done with the mouth and not enough with the fists. The Peoria Star suggests that possibly this is correct and that the curse of the country is landlordism. "To farm properly now a man must have capital, machinery and appliances. "The man with the hoe" has gone out of business. Farming has become a scientific game. The man who takes advantage of modern processes must have a good bank account to start with. If he is obliged to become a tenant farmer he skins the soil and the result is degeneration and not progress. It is the old story. We may cry "back to the land" as much as we please, but to take the ordinary city bred man and put him out on the land is to invite failure."

City employes in Jacksonville are a month or so behind with their pay and before the year is over will probably be in arrears several more months. Still there lot will not be as hard as city employes in East St. Louis. There arrangements are just being made to pay the $50,000 due employes for the first three months of 1913. In as much as the city prior to that time had incurred an indebtedness beyond the legal limit there was some doubt as to the men ever receiving their pay. Now, however, Mayor Chamberlain is effecting certain savings in police, fire and street departments, has asked all present employes to joint him in an economy effort in order that the salaries and wages due for more than a year can be paid.

Here in Jacksonville people have the habit of thinking that the city is financially in bad straits by comparison with other cities when as a matter of fact most of them are in worse condition.

Judge Turnbaugh of Chicago believes in men's rights. When Charles St. Aubien was haled into his court charged with pulling the plumes from a woman's hat, he declared that the prisoner was not guilty of a misdeamor. The evidence showed that the plumes struck St. Aubien in the face while he was riding in a street car and that he reached forward and pulled them from the hat.

Friday

BY WALT MASON

Of all fried days this is the best for men who earnestly have toiled;

it couldn't have a keener zest if it were poached or stewed or boiled. For now the week draws to its close, and we, who worked to gain the prize, look forward to the sweet repose the Sabbath brings to weary guys. Full soon the wages we have earned will come to us, the plunks, the rocks; and will those wages then be burned, or thrown at owls and chicken hawks? Shall we go forth and blow the coins to gather which we sprained our thews, and dislocated back and loins, and tore the half-sole from our shoes Ah, no! The passing years have brought some wisdom, and we're frugal now each man will toddle to his cot, and hand the bullion to the frau. On Friday, with reward in sight, the cheerful toiler turns his crank and thinks of how, with sane delight, he'll place three dollars ($3) in the bank. The week grows old, 'twill soon be sped, and we have rocks who for them chased; but those who paint the village red have nothing but a dark green taste.

The reported engagement of Miss Eleanor Randolph Wilson, youngest daughter of President and Mrs. Wilson, to William Gibbs McAdoo, secretary of the United States treasury, caused much comment the country over, and official word from the White House was awaited with keen interest. Miss Wilson is twenty-four years old and Mr. McAdoo is fifty. He is a widower with six children. He is also a grandfather. This picture of Miss Wilson was snapped recently in Washington. The picture of Mr. McAdoo is one of the most characteristic of him.

SPECULATION AMONG LEADING SHARES APPROACHES DEADLOCK

No Important Variations Are Shown and Most That Can Be Said is That There Was a Consistently Good Undertone.

New York, March 19.—Speculation approached a deadlock today among the stocks whose movements usually determine the character of the market. The leading shares showed no important variations throughout the session and the most that could be said was that there was a consistently good undertone. Among the specialties speculation was light.

Express stocks and some of the low priced railroad shares were weak.

Liquidation in Rock Island was resumed and new low prices were made for the collateral bonds and both issues of stock. Industrials were indifferent to depressing reports from the trade.

BULGING PRICES FOR CORN LEADS AN EXCITING FLURRY

Commission Demand Absorbs Without Difficulty All of the Selling Pressure and Market Goes Up With a Rush.

Chicago, March 19.—Bulging prices for corn today led to an exciting flurry at the close. The market finished strong at the top prices of the session 1c to 1@1⅛c above last night.

Other speculative articles all joined in the advance. Net gains were: Wheat ⅜c to ⅝@¾c; oats ¼@⅜c to ½c; provisions 2½ to 5c.

It was a run away market in corn. Most of the time Chicago holders were inclined to sell owing to a belief that a reaction was due after the decided upturn on the day previous. Commission demand however, absorbed without difficulty all the selling pressure. The market went up with a rush.

Notwithstanding opinions that snow in Kansas and Nebraska has made the crop outlook the best in years, wheat rose suddenly when shorts attempted to cover on account of the jump in corn.

Oats for July delivery sympathized more than other options with the advance in corn. July finished at the best premium over May so far this season.

Less plentiful arrival of hogs made the provision market firm. There was also an upward tendency in consequence of the bullish action of corn.

FEAR OF RIOT CAUSES ELLEN STARR'S ARREST

POLICE TESTIFY MISS STARR RESISTED POLICE OFFICER.

Captor of One of Hull House Founders Declares She Interfered When He Arrested Two Striking Waitresses for Picketing.

Chicago, March 19.—Fear of a riot caused the police to arrest Miss Ellen Gates Starr, one of the founders of Hull House, on a charge of resisting a police officer in connection with the arrests of pickets in a downtown restaurant strike, according to the testimony of the police in Miss Starr's trial today.

James Baldwin, who arrested Miss Starr, testified she had interfered when he arrested two young women for picketing.

"Sergeant Malone had been trying to drive the crowd back," Baldwin said. "When he heard Miss Starr talking he turned to her and asked her to move on, as she was inciting the crowd. There was a big crowd there and I heard shouts of 'kill the police.'

"Miss Starr refused to move on and said if we arrested the girls we would have to arrest her, too. She said she had never been arrested and wanted to see what it was like, wanted to see how people were treated."

Miss Starr denied she had attempted to incite a riot and said she had merely protested in a general way against an arrest which she thought was illegal. Asked if Sergeant Malone had been there when the waitresses were arrested, Miss Starr answered:

"I cannot differentiate between policemen. They all look alike to me."

"Why do they all look alike to you?"

"Because of their brass buttons and uniforms and because they are chosen mainly for bulk," she answered.

Mrs. William H. Quigg who was with Miss Starr when she was arrested testified that the defendant did not make any threats.

"She acted peaceable, but firm," Mrs. Quigg testified.

The hearing was continued until tomorrow.

SNOW LONG IN MELTING.

Alexander Miller who lives on rural route 3, out of Franklin, was a business visitor in the city Thursday. Mr. Miller is not a frequent visitor and in explaining his coming yesterday said: "Well, I came in to pay my taxes today and so I am attending to some other matters at the same time. This was a pretty bad day to come, but it was a good one at that because I couldn't do much of anything on the farm. The people in my locality are looking for spring weather now for we have been shut off from the outside world to a large degree for a month past. Not until last Monday did the rural carrier get out past my house as there were too many drifts along the road. He was able to get within three miles of my place, but that was the nearest point that the roads were in good condition."

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of Roy Edward Kelley, who passed away March 17, 1913:

Precious darling, he has left us,
Left us, yes, forevermore;
But we hope to meet our loved one
On that bright and shining shore.
Lonely the house and sad the hours
Since our dear one has gone,
But Oh a brighter home than ours
In Heaven is now his own.

Thy gentle voice now is hushed,
Thy warm true heart is still,
And on thy young and innocent brow
Is resting death's cold chill.
Thy hands are clasped upon thy breast,
We have kissed the lonely brow,
And in our aching hearts we know
We have no darling now.

Through all pain at times he'd smile,
A smile of heavenly birth;
And when the angels called him home,
He smiled farewell to earth.
Heaven retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger.
Where our sainted brother sleeps.

A Friend.

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Grils! Try This! Makes Hair Thick, Glossy, Fluffy, Beautiful—No More Itching Scalp.

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparble lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Adv.

MARCH MEETING OF GRACE M. E. W. H. M. S.

Missionary Organization Gathers at Home of Mrs. R. K. Dearworth.

The Womans' Home Missionary society of Grace M. E. church met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. F. K. Dearworth, 203 South Fayette St. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Abbie Dorwart and Mr. H. L. Griswold and the social hour which followed the program was highly enjoyable. Mrs. Herbert Capps and Mrs. J. N. Ward had charge of the program, discussing questions regarding immigration. The home life of the immigrant in Europe and the conditions he finds here was discussed by Mrs. Ward with the aid of an illustrative map. Mrs. Capps gave a resume of Chapter 3 in the "New America." The enigmas were conducted by Mrs. Sarah J. Cocking.

A report was read of the recent philanthropic activities of the society. One barrel of fruit and clothing was sent to Arkansas during the month. It was valued at $13.94. Four dozen song books were sent to a mission church at Hobbs City, Ark., and $2.00 was voted toward the fund for rebuilding the McClusky home in Boaz, Ala. An order for two comforts to be made by the ladies was reported. Ninety-sine members of the organization have paid dues to date. The report showed fifty-two new members.

The society adjourned to meet in April with Mrs. J. R. Harker at the Illinois Woman's college. Miss Ruby Neville will be the assistant hostess.

TAKE SODA FOR ACID STOMACH, SOURNESS, GAS

A 10 grain Sodagen tablet, taken anytime, followed by a glass of water will instantly neutralize acidity; thus relieving Indigestion without fail. Indigestion does not result from a lack of digestive juices as most folks believe, but from an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach which retards digestion and starts food fermentation. Then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acrid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon producing a heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we eructate sour food, belch up gas or have flatulence, heartburn or nausea.

Any pharmacist can supply a package of these 10 grain Sodagen tablets and thousands of stomach sufferers will be able to eat without dread after ridding the digestive organs of excess acid this way, says a noted authority who further states that this Antacid is entirely harmless, being composed of Soda, Magnesia and Calcium Carbonate U. DEMOCRATS NOMINATE COMPLETE STATE TICKET

WITH EXCEPTION OF CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR AND LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR.

Indiana Democrats in Convention Also Adopt Party Platform Which Favors State-Wide Primary Law.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 19.—With little fricton a complete state ticket, excepting candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, but including a candidate for United States senator, was nominated and a platform which declared in favor of a state-wide direct primary law, was adopted by the Democrats of Indiana in state convention here today. All nominations with the exception of the candidates for treasurer and attorney general were chosen on the first ballot. It required eight ballots, occupying more than five hours, to select George A. Bittler of Fort Wayne as the nominee for treasurer and two ballots to select Richard M. Milburn of Jasper as the party's choice for attorney general. There were seven candidates for the nomination of treasurer of state.

The platform which was the cause of a heated all night session of the resolution committee was adopted without debate by the convention. Besides declaring for the state-wide primary law, which was indorsed by President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan in letters to United States Senator John W. Kern it pledged the party to work for an arbitration law similar to the Erdman act, indorsed the administrations of President Wilson and Governor Ralston, urged flood prevention measures and good roads legislation.

The Platform Adopted.

"The Democratic party can well afford to submit its record for the year," declared Governor Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana, in his address here today to the Democratic state convention. Governor Ralston reviewed political events of the past twelve months in the country at large and in his own state and asserted that the party in power had redeemed its pledges and had the country solidly behind it in its program for the future.

"The record made by President Wilson in the past year surpasses the achievements of any of his predecessors in so short a time," said the governor. "It is not surprising that by the foreign press he is recognized as an international schoolmaster, by precept and example instructing the world in commercial fairness and in the science of government that embraces all mankind. A grateful people also should not fail to pay tribute to those who have stood by the president. Although the popularity of the present national administration is due to the stand it has taken for the things that have been advocated for years under the leadership of that masterful man, William Jennings Bryan."

Favors Wilson Mexican Policy.

After reviewing the administration's work on the tariff and currency laws and stating that the president is now in a position to press his anti-trust legislation, Governor Ralston declared his emphatic support of the president's Mexican policy.

"President Wilson has handled with great wisdom and dignity the critical Mexican situation," he said. "He loves peace and he loves humanity. Only as a last and most desperate resort would he consent to the clashing of arms between this country and Mexico. He is ambitious for the restoration of order without the sacrifice of the life of a single American boy. Christian people without regard to party endorse his course and pray that it may result in a victory for law and justice. In Wilson we have a man of rugged, honest and practical wisdom whose exalted character is an exemplification of that righteousness that exalteth a nation."

Utilities Act on Trial.

Turning to state affairs Governor Raston said that Indiana had a public utilities act that was on trial.

"A public service law runs counter to many of my old fashioned Democratic notions," he said. "It is in sharp conflict with the Democratic doctrine of local self government. I have been wedded to this doctrine and since coming to the executive chair my devotion to it has grown stronger. But the people wanted to try out a public service law. It is upon the statute books and it remains to be seen how satisfactory it is going to prove. It is believed that the commission is going to give the people value received for the large sums it will cost. It will prevent oppressive wrongs and will compel service for a reasonable price. It is admitted by expert authorities that our law is one of the best public utilities acts in the country."

Governor Ralston said that Indiana's vocational educational law marked a great advance in the history of the state. He declared that labor laws enacted by the past legislature made a splendid record for the session. Concerning temperance legislation he said:

Temperance Legislation.

"In this Indiana can neither stand still nor take any backward steps. The liquor legislation puts it in the power of the people to prohibit this traffic if they so desire and no modification of this law must be made that will in any way weaken the advantage the people have under it. Our party stands for temperance and a strict enforcement of all liquor laws."

"Strikes and lockouts are crude and cruel" said the governor, speaking of labor legislation. He urged that government should take a hand in the situation. "There should be compulsory arbitration," he asserted, "especially where public utilities are involved. The state should provide a way for the adjustment of difficulties between labor and capital."

Shively is Renominated.

Senator B. F. Shively after being renominated by the state convention, thanked the delegates for the honor and then enterd upon a discussion of the work of the national administration, paying high tribute to President Wilson. The senator declared that the Democratic rule had brought about a real revision of the tariff downward, had divorced the country's currency system and speculators, had solved the trust question and that President Wilson had met perplexing international problems with a firmness and tact that has been unexcelled in the history of the country.

Senator Shively said in part:

"The tariff has been revised downward. In that work no honest fear, no mistaken apprehension was lightly ignored. On the other hand that powerful confederacy of special privilege which has fattened on the perversion of custom house taxation did not dictate a paragraph, a line or sylable of that revision. It was a revision conceived, wrought out and enacted into a law in the interest of the whole country."

Discussing the currency question the speaker said:

"For a long series of years conflict of interests in the banking and currency system had baffled all effort at solution. That problem has been solved. The control of the circulating medium of the country has been divorced from speculators on the dizzy heights and frenzied finance, and our circulation made available to develop the resources and enterprises of all parts of the country. The solution is a triumph of American statesmanship that has excited the admiration and compelled the praise of the best expert opinion throughout the world."

In speaking of the international questions confronting the administration, Senator Shively said:

"In no time of peace in the history of the country has so large a number of perplexing problems confronted a president as those coming to President Wilson at his inauguration. These he has met with a discernment, a firmness, delicacy and tact unexcelled in the history of the country.

"His obligation is to the peace and the security of all our citizens. The American people will approve a president who will no more countenance a heedless stampede into extreme measures than he would shrink from such measures should the circumstances justify them."

Convention Adopts Platform.

High tribute was paid to the national administration, President Wilson, Vice-president Marshall and Secretary Bryan in the platform of the Democratic party adopted at the state convention today.

"The Democracy of Indiana," reads the platform, "in delegate convention assembled, remembering the great responsibility cast upon the Democratic party of the nation by the overwhelming voice of the epople at the last national election, points with supreme pride and satisfaction to the record of its achievements within the first year of its accession to power as without a parallel in history, of the prompt and complete fulfilment of the party's pledges to the people.

"We heartily commend the untiring zeal and ceaseless labors of President Wilson, Vice-president Marshall and the Democratic members of congress in both the senate and the house, for the prompt and faithful manner in which they redeemed the solemn pledges made by the party to the people in the Baltimore platform of 1912."

Th platform contains planks putting the party on record as favoring a state-wide primary law, arbitration act similiar to the Erdman law and a demand for a rigid enforcement of the liquor laws. The present financial embarrassment of the state is charged to the previous extended rule of Republican extravagance and mal-administration."

Pretty Homely.

London used to have an Ugly club. On his admittance to the Ugly club a short descriptive sketch of the new member was entered in the minute book. We find the picture of a claimant to the title of the ugliest man on earth in "Joseph Farmer, merchant," whose description reads as follows: "Little eyes, one bigger than ye other; long nose, thin lantern jaws, large upper lip; mouth from ear to ear, resembling a shark's; a rotten set of irregular teeth, which are set off at great advantage by frequent laughing; his visage long and narrow; his looks upon the whole extraordinary, haggard, odd, comic and out of ye way. In short, possessed of every qualification to render him the phoenix of ye society, as the like won't appear again this one thousand years."—London Chronicle.

"THIS IS MY 70TH BIRTHDAY." Bishop Greer.

Rt. Rev. David H. Greer, Episcopal bishop of New York, was born in Wheeling, W. Va., Mar. 20, 1844. He was ordained in 1866, after completing his theological studies at the Protestant Episcopal seminary at Gambrier, O. After filling pastorates in Clarksburg, W. Va., and Covington, Ky., he went to Grace Church in Providence. Here he established a high reputation as a preacher and organizer, and when, in 1888, the pulpit of the Church of St. Bartholomew in New York City became vacant he was asked to accept the rectorate. In 1897 Dr. Greer was elected bishop-coadjutor of Rhode Island, but declined to accept the office. A few years later he declined a similar offer of the bishopric of western Massachusetts. In 1903 he became bishop-coadjutor of the diocese of New York and five years later became bishop on the death of Bishop Potter.

Need Attention in February and March or Face Will Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. True Economy.

A certain old housewife believed in "having clothes appropriate to occasions," and she boasted that she could "get more wear out of a dress" than any one else. When a garment was past its first, second and third stages of usefulness for public wear it was relegated to certain seasons of domestic stress, from which it passed eventually to the ragbag. One gown long dear to her heart had reached this last stage, and she acknowledged it one day to the village seamstress.

"Don't seem as if I'd had half the good I expected to out of it," she said wistfully. "'Tisn't but eight years since I had it made up. Two years I wore it Sundays, the next two sewing circle afternoons, next two when I went errands to the village, and these last two round the house common. But now"—and she regarded the bundle sorrowfully before stuffing it into the yawning bag—"now 'tisn't even fit to hang out washing in on Mondays!"—Exchange.

MAN REACHES ZENITH AT 60 YEARS OF AGE

TAFT ADDRESSES STUDENTS OF UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA.

Former President Does Not Believe That a Man at Sixty Years Has Outlived His Usefulness by Any Means.

Minneapolis, Minn., March 19.—Former President William H. Taft does not believe a man at sixty years of age has outlived his usefulness by any means. On the other hand he believes that a man at that age has but reached his zenith and profiting by the experiences of his youth is better able to perform the work that is cut out for him. Addressing a mass meeting of the University of Minnesota students this afternoon Mr. Taft said:

"When a man is sixty and looks back on life he is able to recognize the defects which have come to him through lack of self restraint and self-sacrifice. We know so much at sixty, we think we ought to rush in tims included many women and women to avoid the same pitfalls."

Conscience Only Aid Needed.

The only aid needed to interpret the Sherman anti-trust law and the supreme court decision thereon is a man's own conscience, according to former President Taft, who addressed the law school of the University of Minnesota today. In discussing the Standard Oil and American Tobacco decisions he said:

"No man who has read these decisions need be doubtful when making a business arrangement whether he is violating the law. By searching his own heart he can tell what this purpose is and what the effect of the act will be."

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ". Its grand—its glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothink like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

REVIEWS HISTORY OF "ILL-FATED" MEXICO

SENATOR ROBINSON ADDRESSES BRYAN BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.

Declares Famous Nebraskan is the Originator of "Watchful Waiting" and Predicts the People Will Some Day Rejoice over Warnings Against Intervention.

Lincoln, Neb., March 19.—Defending the administration's Mexican policy, declaring Secretary Bryan was the originator of "watchful waiting," and predicting that the people will some day rejoice over the warning against woe and desolation that would follow intervention in Mexico, Senator Joseph T. Robinson, Democrat, of Arkansas, addressed friends and neighbors of Mr. Bryan at a dinner here tonight to celebrate the forty fourth anniversary of the secretary's birth.

Senator Robinson recited the history of "ill-fated" Mexico from the days of Maximilian, asserting that conditions today are worse than ever and that Mexico has continually declined through a series of upheavals, until today the country is divided with Huerta at the head of one assumed government and Carranza and Villa attempting to reign supreme in another.

"Maximilian was benevolent. Madero was generous. Huerta is malignant and revengeful. Maximilian was self-sacrificing. Madero was patriotic. Huerta is cruel and avaricious. His character is exemplified in his declaration:

"'It costs but thirty cents to buy enough rope to hang a rebel.' The vital, dominating leader of the rebel armies is Villa, it is not Carranza. Carranza is like Madero. Villa is like Huerta. His sagacity and aggressiveness have made him the master and the terror of northern Mexico. Villa recognizes neither law nor custom. His most striking characteristic is vindictiveness, coupled with a marked capacity for military leadership. It is illustrated by his now famous toast: 'I hope to live to eat the beef that will fatten on the grass which will grow on the graves of all my enemies.'

Sympathy Against Rebels.

"The slaughter of Benton and the murder of Bauch, respectively British and American subjects, by this 'human tiger' have alienated the sympathy of the administration and consigned the cause of the constitutionalists to doubt, if not to doom, in the minds and conscience of all our people.

"With Villa in command in the north and Huerta in power in the south, what hope has Mexico? If the constitutionalist cause should triumph the fate of Madero may become the lot of Carranza. Villa probably will dominate him or destroy him. The dark ages, with all their horrors, tyranny, usurption, and torture cannot produce names more hideous in all that implies oppression and outrage than the names of Huerta and Villa. There is little choice between these men. Huerta stands for the old regime. Villa fights for its destruction."

Leader Retards Progress.

Senator Robinson predicted that the cause of the constitutionalists would be retarded, if not defeated, "by its lawless leadership which seems to recognize no limitation upon its own rath."

Would Unite All Factions.

"The policy of our government is justified by conditions in Mexico," he continued. "The spirit of impatience which has prompted some to advocate armed intervention must be restrained. Our experience in the Philippines and the whole history of Mexico, warn us against hasty or inconsiderate action. Intervention means a long period of occupation. It makes certain the sacrifice of thousands of lives. More than that, it contemplates the assumption of a burden which cannot now be weighed. It would array all Mexico against the United States and unite all factions there against our armies.

"Let those who criticise the policy of 'watchful waiting' anticipate the results of armed intervention. Let them realize the many turbulent years of strife that must follow; the blood that must inevitably flow, the homes that must be made desolate; the almost hopelessness of the problem of bringing order out of the chaos and of establishing a stable government in Mexico on principles unfamiliar to her people. The character, habits and traditions of the Mexican people underlie their present struggle and confirm the administration's policy to leave Mexico to work out her own salvation.

"Huerta and Villa must, however, be made to realize the sacredness which other nations attach to human life and property. They must be instructed to look for a day when every wrong perpetrated upon a foreigner in Mexico must have restitution.

Bryan Stands for Peace.

"We now celebrate the birthday of one who is, in many respects, the most remarkable man of our times. During the last twenty years, Mr. Bryan has been the leader of political reforms in the United States. Many of his principles have been written into the law. He has stood for peace, peace at home, peace with all the world. He has sought to raise the standards of diplomacy. 'Grape juice Diplomacy' and 'the Battleship-Friendship' have been the slogan of those who would mock him. Modest sobriety and universal peace have been his aim.

"God grant that in time our 'watchful waiting' may be rewarded; that peace and liberty may come to Mexico. If no other way can be found, if in the end our armies must invade that land of beauty and song, who will asperse the great Commoner for raising his voice in warning against the woe and desolation, the loss and grief which must result? What fire-side will not be brighter, what home will not be made securer by his admonition; what victory will be less glorious and triumphant by his course?"

U. S. Commander on Border and Colonel Whose Men Aid Him.

Photos by American Press Association.

The strengthening of the United States troops along the Mexican border was generally taken as an indication that the administration was determined to be fully prepared for intervention if such a course was absolutely necessary. The Ninth and Seventeenth United States infantry, stationed at Fort Logan H. Roots, Arkansas, and Fort McPherson, Georgia, were sent to Eagle Pass and Laredo, Tex. They added to the strength of the troops under the command of Brigadier General Tasker H. Bliss, who is here pictured on the left. Colonel John T. Van Orsdale (right) was in charge of the Seventeenth regiment until the day it was ordered to the border, being then retired on account of age.

Rundown and Nervous, Restored to Health by Vinol.

A. D. Robinson, Radford, Va., says: "I was all run down in health, had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep at night. ANNUAL JOINT DEBATE WON BY SIGMA PI SOCIETY

Affirmative Declared Victor in Contest at Illinois College—Government Ownership of Express Companies Discussed.

A victory for Sigma Pi Literary society was the result Thursday evening of the annual Phi Alpha-Sigma Pi joint debate. The winning team upheld the affirmative of the government ownership of express companies question in a close and exciting contest in Jones Memorial building at Illinois college, winning the favorable decision of two of the judges. The debate was followed by banquets by both societies, the Sigs at the Colonial Inn and the Phis at the Batz cafe.

The affirmative team:
Clifford H. Dixon, leader '16.
Ellis Spray, '16.
Edward Bullard, '16.
The negative team:
Ray H. Bracewell, '15, leader.
Robbins Russel, '14.
Clarence Kimmel, '16.
The alternates were Earl Harmon for Sigma Pi and Reuben Cohn for Phi Alpha.

The question as stated is "Resolved that the governmnet should control the express business of the country, the term "control" meaning to own and operate, constitutionality waived." It was submitted to Illinois college by the other colleges of the Tri-league and will be debated again by each team when Monmouth college comes here and the Phi Alpha men go to Rock Island to meet Augustana college, Friday, March 27. The judges for the joint debate were the Hon. Frank L. Hatch of Springfield; Judge Charles A. E. Martin of Virginia and the Hon. William Groves of Petersburg. Prof. J. G. Ames presided and announcid the decision of the judges. The society flowers, white and red carnations, were in full evidence and the enthusiasm of men of the opposing societies hardly knew bounds.

Regulation a Failure.

The regulation of express business by the government has been a failure, declared the affirmative. "Do you not heartily believe that the parcels post has been a great success?" "Socialism," "paternalism," "inefficiency" were terms flouted by the negative when their opponents strove to justify government control. "The post office department could show a profit of $30,000,000 to $40,000,000 were its management in private hands." A corruption fund, litigation fees, interest on water, etc., were charged up by the affirmative to the needless expenses of the express companies. Among the most interesting features of the debate was the way in which each side handled developments of recent days, as the failure of the United States Express Co., each team turning the facts as public in the press reports to its own patent advantage. Both sides had prepared charts which were used with particular advantage for the comparison of parcels post and express rates. A novel method of announcing the results was employed by the presiding officer. Instead of retiring and returning with the decision as is usual, he opened the sealed decisions at once from the platfrom, opening first an affirmative, then a negative and last of all the deciding affirmative judge's sealed decision.

AVIATORS PREDICT GREAT THINGS FOR COMING YEAR

Eighth Annual Dinner of Aero Club of America is Held in New York.

New York, March 19.—Aviators of note and men of prominence in other activities sat side by side tonight at the eighth yearly dinner of the Aero club of America and heard speakers wax enthusiastic over the progress recently made in the science of navigating the air and predict even more remarkable developments along this line within the next few years.

Rear-Admiral Robert E. Peary, was one of the speakers who dwelt optimistically on the future developments of aviation. Its past record had convinced him, he said, that within five years trans-Atlantic and circumterrestrial flights would be possible. He did not discount, however, the difficulties to be encountered in this and declared that in order for a flight to the North Pole a machine would have to travel 1,000 miles without a stop.

Allan R. Hawley, president of the club, read a telegram from Orville Wright in which the aviator predicted a great year for the sport. Mr. Hawley presented to Ralph H. Upson a gold medal for his victory in the International Balloon race last year and the aviation medal of merit to R. A. D. Preston, aide to Mr. Upson in the contest.

TELEPHONE ACHIEVEMENTS

TELEPHONE SERVICE OF TO-DAY THE CREATION OF THE BELL CO.

In no line of human endeavor has the inventive brain of the scientist contributed more to the world's progress than by the creation of the art of telephony, of which the Bell system is the embodiment.

When the telephone was born, nothing analogous to telephone service as we now know it existed. There was no tradition to guide, no experience to follow.

The system, the apparatus, the methods—an entire new art had to be created. The art of electrical engineering did not exist. The Bell pioneers, recognizing that success depended upon the highest engineering and technical skill at once organized an experimental and research department which is now directed by a staff of over 550 engineers and scientists, including former professors, post-graduate students, scientific investigators—the graduates of over 70 universities.

From its foundation the company has continuously developed the art. New improvements in telephones, switchboards, lines, cables, have followed one another with remarkable rapidity.

While each successive type of apparatus to the superficial observer suggested similarity, each step in the evolution marked a decided improvement. These changes, this evolution, has not only been continuous, but is continuing. Substantially all of the plant now in use, including telephones, switchboards, cables and wires, has been constructed, renewed or re-constructed in the past 10 years.

Particularly in switchboards have the changes been so radical that installations costing in the aggregate millions have frequently been discarded after only a few years of use.

Since 1877 there have been introduced 53 types and styles of receivers and 73 types and styles of transmitters. Of the 12,000,000 telephone receivers and transmitters owned by the Bell Company January 1, 1914, none were in use prior to 1902, while the average age is less than five years.

Within ten years we have expended for construction and reconstruction an amount more than equal to present book value of entire plant.

Long-distance and underground transmission was the most formidable scientific problem confronting telephone experts.

The retarding effect of the earth on the telephone current often impaired conversation through one mile underground as much as 100 miles overhead. Overhead conversation had its distinct limitations.

No possible improvement in the telephone transmitter could of itself solve these difficulties.

The solution was only found in the cumulative effect of imprvements, great and small, in telephone, transmitter, line, cable, switchboard, and every other piece of apparatus or plant required in the transmission of speech.

While the limit of commercial overhead talking had increased from strictly local to over 1,000 miles as early as 1893, it was not until 1905 that conversation could be had over long-distance circuits of which as much as 20 miles was in underground cables. By 1906 underground talking distance had increased to 90 miles. By 1912 it was possible to talk underground from New York to Washington.

It was then that the construction of underground conduits from Boston to Washington was determined upon,—not that it was expected to get a through underground talk between those places, but in case of storm or blizzard, to utilize intermediate sections in connection with the overhead.

Our persistent study and incessant experimentation have produced results more remarkable still.

We have perfected cables, apparatus and methods that have overcome obstacles heretofore regarded as insuperable both to long-distance overhead and underground conversation.

Underground conversation is now possible between Boston and Washington, four times the length of the longest European underground line. This enabled the Bell System in the recent great storm, so destructive on land and sea, to maintain communication for the public between all the principal points on the Atlantic seaboard.

Telephone communication is established between New York and Denver, is potentially possible between all points in the United States, and by 1915 will be an accomplished fact between New York and San Francisco.

In our use of methods or apparatus, we are committed to no one system. We own, control or have the right to use inventions necessary to operate any system recognized or accepted as the most efficient. The Bell System must always recognize, and in its selection must always be governed by the necessities of a national service, with its complex requirements, which is infinitely more exacting than local or limited service.

These achievements represent vast expenditures of money and immense concentration of effort which have been justified by results of immeasurable benefit to the public. No local company unaided could bear the financial or scientific burden of this work. Such results are possible only through a centralized general staff, avoiding wasteful duplication of effort, working out problems common to all, for the benefit of all.

The pioneers of the Bell System recognized that telephone service as they saw it, was in the broadest sense a public utility; that upon them rested a public obligation to give the best possible service at the most reasonable rates consistent with risk, investment and the continued improvement and maintenance of its property.

Without this expenditure of millions and concentration of effort, the telephone art as it exists could not have been developed.

What we have done in working out these great problems in the past should be accepted as a guarantee of what we will do in the future.

THEO. N. VAIL, President.
